With its zeolite project looking strong, Progressive Planet Solutions ups communications

Progressive Planet (CVE:PLAN) has been shaking up the zeolite space lately, with its flagship mine in British Columbia, a 20% interest in a lithium project in Manitoba and a graphite property in Buckingham, Quebec.

The company announced Wednesday that it has also upped its communication game and has engaged Proactive Investors and Investor News Network to help bolster the company's online presence.

Both companies will provide comprehensive digital media services to the company.

Proactive Investors operates five financial websites in four languages providing breaking news, comment and analysis on hundreds of listed companies daily.

Investor News Network provides news and education for investors in over 40 targeted categories with the opportunity to connect educated investors with trusted companies.

Progressive Planet flagship Z-1 Zeolite project covers 93 hectares and is located about three kms northeast of Cache Creek, BC. The area is underlain by volcanic and sedimentary rocks of the Eocene Kamloops Group.

Shares of Progressive Planet were C$0.05 in Toronto on Wednesday.
