

counsel and secretary. The two executives will report to CEO Joseph Lusardi. Davidson was formerly a FO for Deluxe Entertainment Services Group while Goffman formerly held the post of vice-president of corporate operations and general counsel at Netcracker Technology Corporation.

Tilray (NASDAQ:TLRY) also faced a rocky road, dropping by 7% to $76.18. It could be the case that the stock is being pushed down by profit-taking as investors look to cash in on its rise since the company's $17 IPO last July. Privateer, the private equity group which reportedly controls over three-quarters of Tilray's shares, recently said it would hold onto its stake during the first half of 2019.
