The cannabis will be distributed across medical cannabis markets in Europe and is expected to pay ICC more than eight euros per gram.

Under the deal, International Cannabis will issue Wayland 300 million shares in the capital of ICC.

The two companies expect the deal will drive revenue higher as they look to take advantage of economies of scale to improve production, distribution and branding campaigns and enter new cannabis and CBD markets.

Shares of ICC International Cannabis Corp were at US$0.20 on Friday.
