Thor Explorations' Gillman: amount of visible gold indicates "something significant"

Thor Explorations Ltd's Alfred Gillman tells Proactive that the company has concluded the first part of its DFS drilling workstream for the current year, and that the amount of visible gold from the drill cores is one of the more exciting aspects of the Segilola project.

He adds that the visible gold indicates something significant, with an expectation that the project could potentially yield more than 30 grams per tonne of gold.
