Metalla Royalty and Streaming details production guidance extension in big update

Metalla Royalty and Streaming Ltd (CVE:MTA) CEO Brett Heath tells Proactive Investors the company has announced partner CBH Resources has updated its mine plan, adding 18 months of production to its previous plan at the Endeavor mine in Australia.

The new plan includes a forecast of 1.6m silver ounces to be produced through December 2020. The second point Heath says he is excited about is the potential of the Deep Zinc Lode discovery zone, something that will be continually drilled, which has the potential to extend the mine life much further.
