Touchstone to target world class oil and gas reserves after fundraise

Paul Baay, CEO of Touchstone Exploration (LON:TXP) tells Proactive London that its £3.8mIn fundraise had the backing of the company's two biggest institutional shareholders.

The capital injection will fund exploration at the Ortoire Block in Trinidad. Baay explains the programme is a potential step change and the company is targeting "very large gas reserves and very large oil reserves."

He added, "If we have a great deal of success, we could have a multi-year drilling programme and that's a problem I'm happy to deal with down the road."
