Swen Lorenz from Undervalued-shares.com discusses with Proactive London's Andrew Scott the idea behind his website and newsletters and how he's offering investors an alternative perspective to what they'll be able to find in the mainstream media.

"For me primarily it's about buying future cash flow at too cheap of a price .. cash flow is the ultimate measure of the success of a business and if you can get cheap future cash flow then you're onto something"
