TNR Gold has ambitions to become a 'leader in green energy metal royalties and gold'

TNR Gold's (CVE:TNR) executive chairman Kirill Klip tells Proactive London's Andrew Scott why he's determined to make the company the leading green energy metals royalty and gold company.

Klip's recently announced he'll be investing more of his own cash in the business and increasing his stake beyond 22%.

TNR has royalty holdings in a number of projects with industry leaders including the likes of Ganfeng Lithium and McEwen Mining in copper.
