Codebase Investment subsidiary World High Life's Love Hemp brand increases capacity for LH Botanicals business

Codebase Ventures Inc (CSE:CODE) (OTCQB:BKLLF) said Thursday its subsidiary World High Life Plc's Love Hemp brand has boosted capacity for its wholesale business, LH Botanicals.

LH Botanicals offers a range of CBD products for wholesale, bulk and white label in customizable bottle sizes, concentrations and flowers.

Founders Tony Calamita and Thomas Rowland, who also founded Love Hemp, have invested in advanced in-house technology that can test for the widest range of cannabinoids as standard, the group said in a statement. As a result, the UK-based brand expanded its product offering to include bath bombs and added an additional capsule machine capable of producing 100,000 capsules per day.

Bulk CBD products are available as CBD rich oils, isolate crystals, water-soluble powders, body salves, liquid terpenes, flavoured isolate e-liquids, broad-spectrum unflavoured e-liquids, vegan jelly domes, gummy bears and soft gel capsules.

"Consumer demand for CBD is increasing, as people turn to more natural health and wellness solutions and remedies," World High Life said. "This is reflected in wholesale demand for new products, as a result, LH Botanicals continues to prioritize its client's requests for innovation."

London-based World High Life is an investment company with a strategic focus to invest in or acquire companies operating in the CBD wellness and medicinal cannabis industry. Established in 2015, Love Hemp boasts a range of CBD products such as oils, edibles, cosmetics and vaping merchandize.

Vancouver-based Codebase Ventures aims to invest early in sectors that have significant upside, including the cannabis sector.
