NexTech AR Solutions Corp (CSE:NTAR) (OTCQB:NEXCF) announced Thursday that its InfernoAR virtual events program was chosen as the platform to host a global insurance company's worldwide leadership summit in June. InfernoAR allows companies to host virtual conferences, trade shows, product tours, webcasts and webinars and can be integrated with standard collaboration tools like Zoom and Microsoft Teams. New York- and Toronto-based NexTech acquired InfernoAR as part of a March 2020 deal for Jolokia, a remote video training and live stream company that generated $1 million in Software as a Service (SaaS) revenue for 2019.

Pacific Empire Minerals Corp (CVE: PEMC) (OTCQB: PEMS), a hybrid prospect generator, has closed a non-brokered private placement that raised $275,000. The company issued 5.5 million units at a price of $0.05 each. Each unit consists of one common share and one purchase warrant which entitles the holder to acquire one common share for $0.10 per until 5 pm PT on the date that is 36 months from the closing. Proceeds will be used for general working capital purposes and for exploration on the Worldstock property.

Chemesis International Inc (CSE:CSI) (OTCQB:CADMF) closed the second tranche of its previously announced $1.3 million financing on Thursday. The second tranche consisted of 1,272,500 units priced at $0.50 per unit raising just over $636,000. Each unit consisted of one share and one warrant exercisable at $1 for a 24-month period following the closing date of the financing. Proceeds from the offering will go towards general working capital and potential future acquisition opportunities.

Loop Insights Inc (CVE:MTRX) (OTCMKTS: VRZPF) has released a company update detailing how it would navigate a post-coronavirus (COVID-19) future as governments finally loosen stay-home orders to allow more business activities. The Vancouver-based technology company sees great opportunities for itself as governments and municipalities lift restrictions to allow brick-and-mortar retailers to slowly reopen. "Many of Loop's previous projects that were put on hold due to the COVID-19 lockdown are now being fast-tracked, with implementations being scheduled for mid-June," the company said in a statement on Thursday.

Naturally Splendid Enterprises Ltd (CVE:NSP) (OTCMKTS:NSPDF) said Thursday that its preparation for a Phase 2 clinical trial of Cavaltinib to treat coronavirus (COVID-19) patients is advancing. The company said Health Canada has performed an initial review of data for a Clinical Trial Application (CTA) and has advised that the Biologic Division within the agency's Regulatory Affairs Biologic and Radiopharmaceutical Drugs Directorate is the appropriate channel to continue processing the CTA. "This significant designation creates a clear path for the CTA to proceed," Naturally Splendid said in a statement.

immunotherapy and other indications, added a pair of industry experts to its board of directors. One new face is David Epstein, who served as CEO of Novartis Pharmaceuticals, a division of Novartis AG (NYSE:NVS) from 2010 to mid-2016. The other new addition is David Nicholson, who has spent more than 40 years in pharmaceutical research and development, including leadership stints at Allergan, Bayer CropScience, Schering-Plough, Organon and Merck.

Blockchain Holdings Ltd (CSE:BCX) announced Thursday that two more countries have begun advanced pilot programs for its TRACESafe self-monitoring technology. The British Virgin Islands-based company said that Kuwait will use TRACESafe in its "DeliverSafe" program for safety and contact tracing across its food delivery workforce, and an additional Southeast Asian country, unnamed for confidentiality reasons, will use TRACESafe's hardware and software packages to manage self-quarantine. TRACESafe's self-monitoring technology provides real-time location services for healthcare and pandemic outbreak control. The program is already deployed in Hong Kong to help the region manage its coronavirus (COVID-19) containment program.

Media Central Corporation Inc (CSE:FLYY) has announced the launch of AdCentralDirect, an in-house mobile and cross-channel demand-side platform agency that connects digital advertising inventory through one interface. In a statement on Thursday, the Toronto-based media giant said AdCentralDirect will immediately provide brands advertising inventory on the digital platforms of Media Central's flagship titles NOW Magazine in Toronto and Georgia Straight in Vancouver, as well as the company's cannabis-specialty platform Canncentral.com and ECentralSports.com, its digital e-sports and e-gaming title. As AdCentralDirect evolves, it will unite additional independent alternative publications under its umbrella creating "an attractive solution" for advertisers wanting to connect to influential consumers, said the company.

Renaissance Gold Inc (CVE:REN) (OTCQB:RNSGF) has successfully optioned out its Silicon project in Nevada to mining major AngloGold Ashanti (NYSE:AU). The latter has told the firm it will make the final payment of US$2.4 million to complete the option by June 21 this year. It means AngloGold will have bought 100% of the project by paying RenGold a total of US$3 million within three years. RenGold will retain a 1% net smelter royalty (NSR) within a defined area of interest (AOI) covering around 15,000 acres.

Internet of Things Inc (CVE:ITT) (OTCMKTS:INOTF) revealed that its subsidiary Weather Telematics Inc (WTX) is in talks with multiple fleet management groups over deploying its latest sensor system in vehicles to enhance safety and reduce costs. The 'Alert Fleet' system is based on advanced artificial intelligence (AI), deep machine learning and data science, the tech firm said in a statement on Thursday. Once deployed in a vehicle, the product would run on a software-as-a-service (SAAS) business model, providing Weather Telematics with monthly recurring revenue proportionate to the number of vehicles within a customer's fleet.

Mirasol Resources Ltd (CVE:MRZ) (OTCMKTS:MRZLF), the project generator, said Thursday it has now closed the previously announced option on its Virginia Silver project in Argentina, where drilling is expected to kick off in late Q3 or early Q4 this year. The company has inked the definitive agreement with Golden Opportunity Resources Corp (CSE:GOOP), which has now completed an oversubscribed C$2.2 million financing, providing it with the financial firepower to advance the site, Mirasol told investors in a statement. The pair are now establishing an exploration committee to finalize exploration and drilling plans.

Codebase Ventures Inc (CSE:CODE) (OTCQB:BKLLF) said Thursday its subsidiary World High Life Plc's Love Hemp brand has boosted capacity for its wholesale business, LH Botanicals. LH Botanicals offers a range of CBD products for wholesale, bulk and white label in customizable bottle sizes, concentrations and flowers. Founders Tony Calamita and Thomas Rowland, who also founded Love Hemp, have invested in advanced in-house technology that can test for the widest range of cannabinoids as standard, the group said in a statement. As a result, the UK-based brand expanded its product offering to include bath bombs and added an additional capsule machine capable of producing 100,000 capsules per day.

Aurania Resources Ltd (CVE:ARU) (OTCQB:AUIAF) told shareholders on Thursday that the Tsenken North area of its Lost Cities-Cutucu project in Ecuador shows a promising group of targets. Soil sampling completed at Tsenken North reveals at least three distinct copper targets, a number that Aurania says is likely to increase as it resumes fieldwork in Ecuador. CEO Keith Barron said it is "not surprising" to see the 10 square kilometres Tsenken North airborne magnetic target evolving into a cluster of porphyry-type centres.

Exro Technologies Inc (CSE:XRO)(OTCQB:EXROF) said Thursday that it has appointed Eric Hustedt, an innovator in automotive and power electronics, as the company's new chief of engineering. In a statement, the Vancouver-based cleantech company that has developed a new class of control technology for electric powertrains, noted that as the boss of the company's engineering department in Calgary, Alberta, Hustedt will be instrumental in advancing the rapid commercialization of Exro's technology. In the new role, Hustedt will consolidate the responsibilities of the VP of Engineering held by Torsten Broeer who is retiring, and chief technology officer Ari Berger who will close out his role with Exro in June.

Quantum Computing Inc (OTCQB:QUBT) has appointed noted information technology expert and industry thought leader Majed Saadi to serve on the company's technical advisory board. In a statement Thursday, the company said Saadi brings more than 20 years of executive leadership and experience in strategy development and IT transformation, as well as functional knowledge in the domains of cloud computing, platform development, enterprise architecture, and enterprise systems management. He currently serves in a divisional senior management position at a global aerospace and defense company, focused on the deployment of major networks and systems for government and commercial customers.
