GlobeX Data Ltd (OTCQB:SWISF) (CSE:SWIS), a Swiss-hosted cybersecurity company, saw its business model affirmed in a recent report from Goldman Sachs, which advised investors to focus on US tech stocks with foreign exposure, the company said in a statement on Wednesday. The report, which Bloomberg reported over the weekend, suggested that investors betting on future dollar weakness should target US companies with high international sales, which tend to often outperform in weak-dollar environments. Over the last year, GlobeX has signed distribution agreements in more than 20 countries on five continents.

Information Services Corp (TSE:ISV), which provides registry services for public records, revealed that its wholly-owned subsidiary ESC Corporate Services has executed an agreement to buy all the major assets in Paragon Inc's business for C$70 million. Paragon is a tech-enabled company which facilitates asset recovery on behalf of Canada's major banks. Asset recovery often takes the shape of identification, retrieval and disposition of movable assets like cars, boats, aircraft and other physical assets used as collateral in transactions. The Saskatchewan-based firm's stock recently traded 5.4% higher to $17.51 a share in Toronto. In a statement, Information Services CEO Jeff Stusek said: "Paragon is a growing, complementary business that expands our services segment's portfolio of solutions in the credit life cycle from loan origination to recovery."

Royal Road Minerals Ltd (CVE:RYP) said Wednesday it has filed amended certificates of the qualified person as part of the NI 43-101 technical report for the Luna Roja property in Nicaragua. The filings clarify that Nigel Chapman, who prepared the report along with Luna Recursos Naturales, was not independent of the company and had prior involvement with the Luna Roja property while he served as a contractor and employee of Royal Road from March 2019 to January 31, 2020.

DRDGOLD Limited (NYSE:DRD), the South African gold producer, has named Timothy John Cumming and Charmel Flemming as non-executive director and independent non-executive director, respectively, as of August 1. Cumming is the founder and partner of Scatterlinks Proprietary Limited and an independent non-executive director of Sibanye-Stillwater Limited and Nedgroup Investments (SA) and serves as a non-executive chairman of Riscura Holdings Limited. Flemming started her career as a trainee accountant at KPMG South Africa and held various positions within the De Beers Group over 11 years. She also served as a trustee on the boards of both the De Beers Benefit Society Medical Aid and De Beers Pension Fund. Charmel is the founder and CEO of F Twelve and is also a non-executive director at Acorn Agri & Food Limited and at ATKV.

KULR Technology Group Inc (OTCQB:KULR) won a second US patent for its Thermal Runaway Shield (TRS) - a passive propagation resistant solution designed to reduce the hazardous associated with thermal runaway (rapid jump in temperature) in lithium-ion battery packs. The company's TRS is a sleeve-like shield that surrounds and separates individual cells in multi-cell packs and contains carbon fiber core and liquid coolant to keep an exploded cell from causing a catastrophic fire through the entire battery pack. The unique combination and configuration of the shield passively draws intense heat of cell failures away from nearby cells while dousing the failed area in a cooling and fire-prevention liquid. The TRS product is used by NASA to transport to and store batteries aboard the International Space Station.

CleanSpark Inc (NASDAQ:CLSK), a diversified software and services company, announced Wednesday that it has been awarded a contract to provide controls and storage for a commercial microgrid in Southern California. The Utah-based company said it expects to realize in excess of $300,000 in initial revenues from the project as well as a long-term software subscription. The microgrid project is designed to provide economic optimization and cost avoidance, as well as energy resiliency for the facility. CleanSpark's patented mPulse controls platform will manage a Battery Energy Storage System (BESS) paired with photovoltaic rooftop solar panels.

Altamira Gold Corp (CVE:ALTA) (OTCPINK:EQTRF) has uncovered new mineralized structures at its Cajueiro gold project in Brazil, it said Wednesday. The Vancouver-based explorer said it discovered the structures after a recent trenching program on the property that was originally meant to collect bulk samples for metallurgical testing. Over the course of the trenching program, several previously unknown mineralized structures were located within the Baldo and Crente gold areas, where production is planned during the second half of 2021.

American Battery Metals Corporation (OTCQB:ABML) announced Wednesday it has secured industrial land in northern Nevada for its first-of-its-kind lithium-ion battery recycling facility. The company said it has entered into escrow to purchase about 12 and a 1/2 acres in Fernley and expects to close by September 15. The land is in a Qualified Opportunity Zone (QOZ), which offers a tax incentive to encourage private investment of capital into projects, businesses and property development in northern Nevada. The company said it anticipates financing the building of the facility with a conventional 36-month construction financing of about $5.5 million, including the purchase cost of the building site, an initial 30,000 square-foot industrial building, and initial battery recycling equipment and utility infrastructure. The company noted that the facility site was picked for several reasons. It is near Tesla Inc's (NASDAQ:TSLA) Gigafactory 1 (a lithium-ion battery and electric vehicle subassembly factory).

Willow Biosciences Inc (TSE:WLLW) (OTCQX:CANSF) is getting ready to become the first company to biosynthetically produce non-psychoactive cannabinoids as it begins a pilot production run of cannabigerol, or CBG. The biotechnology company commenced a 500-litre production run to deliver samples of CBG in the third quarter of 2020. Vancouver-based Willow will manufacture the high purity, plant-derived compounds for pharmaceutical, health and wellness and consumer packaged goods industries.

GGX Gold Corp (CVE:GGX) (OTCQB:GGXXF) has started a diamond drilling program on its Gold Drop property in the historic Greenwood mining camp in British Columbia. The Vancouver-based explorer said Wednesday that drilling is designed to test an anomaly uncovered by an airborne geophysical survey in 2019, which used an enhanced, deep-penetrating ultra-sonic AMT technology from Earth Science Services Corporation (ESCO). The anomaly is around 1,834 by 1,377 metres and centred at the intersection of three interpreted major fault conduit structural traces along strike to the north of the main COD vein trend.

Naturally Splendid Enterprises Ltd (CVE:NSP) (OTCMKTS:NSPDF) announced Wednesday that Health Canada has approved a Phase 2 clinical trial of Cavaltinib to treat the COVID-19 disease caused by SARS-CoV-2 coronavirus. The clinical trial design protocol, which will look at the drug's efficacy over a 30-day period, was submitted through a proposed joint venture with Biologic Pharmamedical Research. Cavaltinib already is licensed to another JV owned by Naturally Splendid and Biologic Pharmamedical based on technology and patents developed by Biologic. "We are optimistic that Cavaltinib can be a major part of a successful treatment plan for COVID-19 positive patients," said Franco Cavaleri, CEO and chief scientist at Biologic Pharmamedical, in a statement.

Steppe Gold Ltd. (TSX:STGO) has provided an update on the Bankable Feasibility Study (BFS) underway for the expansion of the ATO Gold Mine into fresh rock ores with a planned production profile of approximately 150,000oz gold equivalent per year and an estimated ten-year mine life. In parallel with the company's aggressive exploration program currently underway at the ATO Gold Mine, the company said it has retained technical and project management advisers and is now working towards the completion of a BFS with a target date of March 2021.

Byrna Technologies Inc (OTCQB:BYRN)(CSE:BYRN), the non-lethal defense technology company, announced Wednesday its plan to expand operations. The company said it has signed a lease for about 14,000 square feet at a facility in Ft Wayne, Indiana to enlarge its manufacturing and distribution capabilities. "We are looking forward to expanding our footprint in Ft Wayne and adding to the region's rich history as a manufacturing center for air guns," said CEO Bryan Ganz in a statement. The company's move to expand comes after it recently posted record revenue in its fiscal second quarter. Byrna HD sales have soared as coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic fears have triggered personal safety concerns.

Ximen Mining Corp (CVE:XIM) (OTCQB:XXMMF) updated investors Wednesday on work at its Kenville gold project which is progressing towards producing its first Dore bar from the historical mine. The company is currently refurbishing the existing 257 portal at the Kenville gold mine and geotechnical drilling and bolting is underway to secure the overburden above the portal excavation. Ximen said work on the 257 portal is continuing non-stop under the direction of the company's consultant geotechnical engineer and site manager.

Exro Technologies Inc. (CSE:XRO) (OTCQB:EXROF), a leading technology company who has developed a new class of power electronics for powertrains has announced the appointment of Richard Meaux, a proven industry innovator in marketing, digital and IoT strategies, as its new Chief of Marketing (CMO). The group noted that Meaux has had diverse experiences in the power conversion industry, beginning his career with GE as part of the Commercial Leadership program and going on to hold roles in engineering, sales, marketing, and product management at the giant conglomerate. The new CMO role is part of a continued focus on commercialization and raising our brand awareness in the growing mobility space, the group said. As CMO, Meaux will have responsibility in overseeing the strategy, planning and development of Exro's global marketing strategies.

Essex Minerals Inc (CVE:ESX) told investors on Wednesday that it has started an initial four-hole diamond drilling program at its Cumberland property, 30 kilometres southwest of Georgetown, in North Queensland in Australia. The Cumberland property has four granted exploration permits covering 25,024 hectares, 70 kilometres northwest of the former 3.5-million-ounce Kidston gold mine. Essex Minerals said the property has the potential to "host high-grade epithermal gold-silver mineralization," and is currently held 80% by KNX and 20% by AMD Resources Limited.

Loop Insights Inc (CVE:MTRX) has added capital markets expert Jeffrey Hyman to its board of directors, the company announced Wednesday. Hyman, who previously served on the company's board of advisors, has more than two decades of experience in investment banking and financial advisory. He worked as managing director at bulge bracket firms and served on the technology committee at JP Morgan Chase.

Metalla Royalty & Streaming Ltd (NYSEAMERICAN:MTA) (CVE:MTA) is boosting its loan facility to over C$32 million to help fund the acquisition of new royalties and streams. The original loan facility of $12 million is from shareholder Beedie Capital, which said in a statement that it "looks forward to supporting the acceleration and growth" of the royalty company's business, according to its managing director David Bell. Beedie's additional $20 million capital commitment brings the Vancouver-based royalty company's convertible loan facility to over $32 million. Under the terms of the loan amendment, Beedie has agreed to convert $6 million out of the $7 million drawn as part of the initial $12 million loan at a price of C$5.56 per Metalla share as part of the conversion rights under the initial loan facility. The remaining $1 million outstanding is subject to conversion under the amendment.

Valeo Pharma Inc (CSE:VPH), a Canadian specialty pharmaceutical company, announced Wednesday it has completed and filed its application to list its Class A shares on the OTCQB market in New York. The company said its listing on the OTCQB remains subject to it fulfilling all of the listing requirements and any other regulatory requirements.
